ORDER:

In the reference first read above, Dr.Y.Anjeneyulu, Assistant Director(AH) has been placed under suspension for the grave irregularities committed by him while working on O.D. as Additional Private Secretary to Minister Marketing and also ordered for his continuation under suspension until the conclusion of the disciplinary proceedings. In the reference second read above, Dr.R.Mohan Rao, Director of Animal Husbandry was appointed as Enquiry Officer to conduct enquiry into the circumstances that lead to the accident took place and caused damages to the Government car No.AP 7468 of Marketing Department duly following procedure as laid down in the APCS(CC&A) Rules, 1991. In the reference fourth read above, the Govt. imposed a punishment of dismissal from service against Dr.Y.Anjeneyulu with immediate effect besides recovery of an amount of Rs.80,000/-being the loss caused to the Govt. under clause (x) of rule 9 of APCS(CA) Rules, 1991 read with clause (i) of Rule 25 of the said rules after examination of the Enquiry Report and also the explanation submitted by the Accused Officer.

Aggrieved by same, Dr.Y.Anjeneyulu filed W.P.No.18778/05 and the Hon'ble High court of A.P. in its judgment dated:11.7.2006, has quashed the punishment imposed by the Govt. and also set aside the orders of the Andhra Pradesh Administrative Tribunal and also ordered that this order shall not preclude the respondents from taking further course of action against the petitioner in accordance with law. Therefore, the Govt. have examined the case in detail keeping in view the orders of the Hon'ble High Court of Andhra Pradesh and decided to re-commence the proceedings of the disciplinary action against the Accused Officer. Accordingly, in the reference sixth read above, ordered that the Accused Officer shall be deemed to have been under suspension from the date of original orders of dismissal and shall be continue to remain under suspension until further orders and also issued a Revised show cause notice as to why suitable major penalty should not be imposed against him for the misconduct, besides recovery of Rs.80,000/-being the pecuniary loss caused to the Govt. by his negligence and breach of orders in terms of the A.P.C.S.(CCA) Rules. In the reference eighth read above, Dr.Y.Anjaneyulu submitted his explanation denying the four charges framed against him duly quoting the findings of the Enquiry Officer. The individual has also represented that he was under suspension from the year 1996 and there is no evidence exclusively available to the Disciplinary authority and requested to drop the disciplinary proceedings against him.

The Government after careful examination of the case in detail keeping in view of the explanation submitted by Dr.Y.Anjeneyulu, Assistant Director (AH), Govt. hereby order for recovery an amount of Rs.80,000(Rupees eighty thousands only) towards the damages caused to the Govt. car from his pensionary benefits by duly regularizing the period of suspension as duty till date.

The Director of Animal Husbandry is requested to take immediate necessary action for recovery of the amount and also take necessary steps for release of the pensionary benefits to the individual officer.
